

Jc remembers Germany well. Spending many hours near Justin was painful, especially when he knew Justin was straight. All he could do was play big brother and let Justin be happy in his own way.

He didn't expect to have Justin walk up to him one night and ask him to "show him the pleasures of being gay."

Yeah, big fucking shock in Jc's eyes. For one, Jc loves Justin deeply and will do anything for him. On another note, this could be a big mistake for a little 16-year-old in the middle of a foreign country.

Jc let his dick decide on that one.

Jc can't forget the Disney special that made them big hits in America. Justin was so happy that day, jumping all over the place like he did when he was in the Mickey Mouse Club. Chris was acting like a ten year old along with him.

Didn't know Justin was for good luck blow jobs before shows. Start of a long tradition that no one would know about. Again, Jc could see that as a big mistake in the making. Building himself up for a heart break, he would tell himself.

But his dick and heart had the upper hand.

No Strings Attached made Justin such a chick magnet. He was with Britney a lot. Jc wasn't surprised when he walked in on him sucking her pussy on his hotel bed. He felt his heart hit the ground then. He didn't let it deter him; he loves Justin, and if Justin was happy with a woman - with a great girl like Britney - then so be it.

Apparently, Justin didn't feel right if he didn't have Jc's mouth in contact with his dick before a performance - no matter how small the gig was. Britney would like to watch, sometimes touch Jc while he was going down on Justin.

It hurt Jc so much. But he came to the voice of Justin's moans, not to the tiny hand that was touching his hot skin between his legs. Jc loves Justin and will always be there for him.

So Jc stopped the ritual and made Justin orgasm to Britney. If Jc couldn't be with Justin fully, or Justin didn't want to say he was gay, than he can be as fucking straight with Britney as he wanted.

Jc's brain bitched slapped his heart and dick for starting this mess.

Their relationship didn't last long, Justin's and Britney's. It wasn't much of a relationship. Jc did his best to play big brother to Justin in public and stay as far away from him as possible in private. Justin saw the separation in there relationship, but did nothing.

Now, in the middle of a concert for Popoddessy, Jc's mind is trying make a connection with past and present. He wants an answer to why Justin is hold his hand in font of thousands of screaming fans. Maybe it is a new thing Justin is trying out for the crowd? Jc's mind comes back to the present and looks at Justin in shock as he stops the music to make a big speech.

He tells everyone he is in love with Jc and wants them to be boyfriends.

Um... Jc wants to scream at Justin, wondering why the hell he is doing this here and now and if this is a sick prank. After a long speech about why he is coming out here and now, Jc feels warm, tender lips on his, begging for something greater.

Jc wants to make sense of the situation and talk with Justin about the signals he obviously has been missing, but Jc's body says to enjoy the kiss.

Jc loves Justin with everything he has. Now he can truly show him that.
